DOD Whistleblower Goes Public, Calls for Investigation Into New COVID Vaccine Injury Data

Lt. Ted Macie, who last March revealed health data from the U.S. military that showed a spike in myocarditis after the COVID-19 vaccine rollout, this week revealed new data that show an increase in suicide and self-harm among military members and called on Congress to hold the Pentagon accountable for its "illegal shot mandate."

The U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) whistleblower who in March released a trove of data from a Pentagon medical database showing a spike in myocarditis cases in the military in 2021, following the rollout of COVID-19 vaccines, went public this week.

Lt. Ted Macie, an active-duty Navy medical service corps officer, also revealed new data on COVID-19 vaccine injuries among service members and called on lawmakers to hold the Pentagon accountable.

In a Sept. 1 tweet, Macie asked Rep. Matt Gaetz (R-Fla.) to "call for accountability from the Pentagon over the tens of thousands of injuries and untold amount of deaths from the illegal shot mandate."

Macie added, "We're here for it, we have ALL the evidence, just open the door already. We're at boiling point."

Macie shared new data from the Defense Medical Epidemiology Database (DMED) showing a substantial rise in numerous health incidents other than myocarditis — including self-harm and suicide attempts — in the military in 2021, compared to the average from 2016-2021.

The DMED shows a subset of the DOD's Defense Medical Surveillance System, which "contains up-to-date and historical data on diseases and medical events (e.g., hospitalizations, ambulatory visits, reportable diseases, etc.) and longitudinal data" for all active and reserve military members.

The system uses International Classification of Diseases (ICD) codes to record each and every time a service member has a "medical event."

RFK Jr./Hooker NEW book: Vax-Unvax. Order Now!

According to The Epoch Times, Macie shared not-yet-public screenshots of the new DMED data.

According to Macie, the new 2021 data, when compared with the average from the prior five years, show there were increases in numerous incidents of violence against self and others, including suicide attempts (33%), intentional self-harm (147%) and assault (828%).

The new data also showed increases in accidents, including water transport accidents (7,400%), land transport vehicle accidents (526%), and slipping, tripping, stumbles and falls (471%).

Macie refrained from making a direct association between any specific data point and the COVID-19 vaccines.

He said he hopes Congress will press the Pentagon for answers about the new data. If lawmakers fail to do this, "the people need to step up to hold our government accountable," he told The Epoch Times.

"What will higher-ranking general officers, the surgeon general, Defense Health Agency and Joint Chiefs do when they receive word that ICD codes/injuries for these incidents are on the rise?" Macie asked.

"Soon, we'll see if the same people who claim that the service member is their top priority actually show that through their action," he added.

Macie said:

"If the data is correct, and is confirmed by [the Pentagon], more than just a stand-down needs to happen. Rising problems like self-harm, suicide attempts, accidents, and assault must be addressed immediately, not just the mess of [vaccine] injuries."

Questions linger about earlier DMED data

Macie's new data are the latest in ongoing revelations from whistleblowers regarding DMED data that revealed an increase since the COVID-19 vaccine rollout of miscarriages, cancer, neurological disorders and other medical conditions.

In early 2022, Sen. Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) asked the DOD if it had reviewed the data showing big spikes in illnesses among military members since the vaccines were rolled out.

Johnson also asked if the military removed reports of vaccine-induced myocarditis from its official database.

Claiming the DMED data for 2016-2020 were incorrect, the DOD in early 2022 temporarily disabled the database and then updated it with what military officials said were more accurate figures.

The new data showed fewer medical conditions potentially related to the vaccines.

Commenting on the DOD's move, Dr. Robert Malone said:

> "Although this database has apparently been managed for years by the same National Institutes of Health subcontractor, and has been included in the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) datasets including those reviewed by the CDC's COVID-19 Vaccine Safety Technical (VaST) Work Group, the geniuses that have been managing it have never identified any issues before the whistleblowers grabbed this download."

Malone, who reviewed some of the raw DMED data released by the whistleblowers, added:

> "There are many potential confounding variables, but whatever the cause, if these data are not due to longstanding and previously undiscovered 'data corruption,' then we have a major issue with the overall health of our armed services."

Johnson in June 2022 asked the company that manages the DMED, Unissant Inc., to turn over records after it failed to fully comply with a previous request seeking information about its "awareness of potential data problems" with the military's database.

For more than a year, Johnson has exchanged correspondence with the DOD regarding the DMED data. In July, Johnson sent another letter to the Pentagon asking if any service members had experienced adverse medical conditions associated with the COVID-19 vaccines.

"If so, how many and what are those conditions? How did DoD make this determination?" he wrote. "Has DoD conducted any independent investigation into whether adverse medical conditions are associated with the COVID-19 vaccines? If so, what has DoD found? If not, why not?"

Johnson told the DOD that their "pattern of deception regarding DMED data is unacceptable."

The Defender reached out to Johnson's office about receiving a reply from the DOD but did not hear back before deadline.

Of course any investigation will be into the whistleblower. Imagine somebody trying to stop massive bribes and "incentive payments" to politicians and corrupt public servants from the sale of experimental drugs. Has to be stamped out so Big Pharma can continue to make big money from sale of rubbish and share the taxpayer moneys with its friends.

Problem I see i there isn't enough money to support truth while the few that control the Fed. reserve have all the buying power. They are NEVER going to willing give up that bought power for truth or to serve humanity. I find it funny that they are so focused on destroying humanity yet they will have to live in the aftermath of the total destruction they have created. Just more proof of how insane they really are.

The evidence is so obvious even Fauci and the rest are unable to spin their  anymore. If masks worked and lockdown worked and vaxxes worked, there would be a 'significant number of deaths in counties, states, countries that didn't wear masks', didn't lockdown, and didn't vax.

"Not only aren't there a significant number of deaths but the data is actually starting to show that "masks, lockdowns, and vaxxing" caused more problems."

"Judicial Watch: Records Reveal 'Pfizer Tested Safety of Covid Vaccine Booster on 23 People' Before 'Biden FDA' Approved the Shots"

Judicial Watch released 58 pages of records from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) showing that a Pfizer study surveyed 23 people in 2021 to gauge reactions to its COVID vaccine booster before asking the FDA to approve it. The FDA indicated that this production of records "represents our complete response to your request; no additional productions are anticipated."

Was this when sudden approval of the Phizer vaccine occured? That took place one week after the new President POTUS Joe Biden began office. Mysteriously the 2 top high officials of the FDA resigned under allegations of political interference in their jobs. One had like 24 years tenure and the other something like 18 years on the job. Mabe they had concerns over a 23 persion study cited to rate vaccine efficacy. A warp speed level 3 approval and well the stage 4 approval step was totally bypassed.

What has happened to this young woman is beyond heartbreaking. How many sadistic murderers are in top political, corporate, military and academic positions? My father was a WW2 veteran and decoder (his military photo is my icon). He told me that the top Nazis party leaders and officials were no more than lowly criminals. Given these tragic and obviously painful adverse reactions and so many others (note the variety - no accident) including the ones inflicted on military personnel mentioned (and documented) in the article above, why is Biden still in the White House for God's sake? Why are so many others responsible for this vicious assault against humanity, particularly the young, not immediately arrested and held without bail for planning and unleashing this terrible mass murder? Thank God for reporters like Dr. Suzanne Burdick, Kennedy and the CHD and other similar organizations and whistleblowers such as Lt. Ted Macie mentioned above and so many more. Without their expertise, research and tremendous courage humanity wouldn't have a chance in hell of surviving this genocide. Thank you, thank you, THANK YOU!

August 25, 2023 Even with the Lowest Distribution in 2023, COVID "Vaccines" are Still the Deadliest Vaccines Accounting for 70% of All Vaccine Deaths

In the two and a half years since the COVID-19 injections were authorized for emergency use by then President Donald Trump, there have been 676,728,782 doses injected into adults and children in the United States, but only 1.4% of those have been injected in Americans so far here in 2023, with a dramatic reduction of those lining up to receive an injection of the bioweapon.

The 'dying' will be driven by what is called 'Immune Escape'.

Yes, many of the vaccinated will not be killed by the vaccine's adverse effects. They will be killed by a new variant which they will have no resistance to. They will die rapidly even with immediate antiviral interventions.
https://lawrencebutts.subst...

Seems to be true that those who took the "vaccine" and the recommended "boosters" have 'systematically destroyed their own immune system response' making any variant they encounter possibly deadly. Looks like the smart ones were those vilified because they were going to kill everybody if they didn't take the experimental shots?

"Questions linger about earlier DMED data"

It's commonly called a cover-up. Dr. Malone summed it up nicely. Everything was fine with the data until whistleblowers came forth.

The CDC hid the Triggering of their death safety signal for TWO YEARS.
Ed Dowd conservatively estimates that 300,000 in the U.S. have died from the Covid shots.
No reason not to believe that DMED altered their data in order to hide the truth about Covax injuries in the military.

And this is what infuriates me & keeps me awake at night. I have 2 kids in the military (the third one just finished) & a couple have had various minor illnesses. Thankfully nothing major & prayerfully nothing more.

I think many many members are aware of the toxic shot & may do whatever means necessary to avoid it this time around. Thankfully. My daughter explained in boot camp right after the first dose (btw they gave poolies their 'routine' shots AND the convid shots (not boosters) ALL AT ONCE!!!!) & she said one gal collapsed when running shortly after her series of shots. How utterly criminal. Not sure if that gal was (is) ok.

So please understand not all military members are corrupt & 'deserve' their side effects if they took these shots. They will be & were harassed, held back & were discriminated against for promotions & transfers. I don't believe it will stop until we actually have people in office that DO something about using military members (& us!) as experiments.

Operation Warp Speed was actually a contract between the biggest felon in the world, Pfizer and the biggest killer in the world, the DOD for a safe and effective vaccine. The match made in purgatory produced a bioweapon that was totally useless and totally deadly. The DOD doesn't go after Pfizer because their contract was a scam for control and power.
